2. Story angles (18)

These are research possibilities, not finished stories. Each hook is a proposed question for a 10-year-old reader; source quotations identify the historical basis.

Angle 1. The Misspelled Word

Hook: What happened when a schoolboy Gandhi could not spell a word during an examination?

Key fact — LATER MEMORY, told by Gandhi in his autobiography: Gandhi remembered a school spelling test involving kettle.

Source: Gandhi’s autobiography, “Childhood”
Exact quote: “One of the words was 'kettle'. I had mis-spelt it.”

This should be attributed to Gandhi's own recollection. No separate classroom record was verified.

Angle 2. The Lawyer's Application

Hook: What did Gandhi write when he applied to become a lawyer in Bombay?

Key fact: Gandhi's application was dated 16 November 1891 and stated that he had qualified in England.

Source: Gandhi's application reproduced in The Law and the Lawyers
Exact quote: “I am desirous of being admitted as an Advocate of the High Court.”

The application is suitable for a document-focused angle.

Angle 3. The Ticket That Did Not Protect Him

Hook: Why was a passenger removed from a train even though he had a first-class ticket?

Key fact: The train incident occurred at Pietermaritzburg in South Africa; a newspaper account says Gandhi had a valid ticket.

Source: The Indian Express, 7 June 2018
Exact quote: “in spite of the latter possessing a valid ticket.”

Date warning: Sources give both 31 May and 7 June 1893. See Section 4.

Angle 4. The First Issue of a Newspaper

Hook: What did the first issue of a newspaper started by South Africa's Indian community look like?

Key fact: The Gandhi Heritage Portal has an issue record for Indian Opinion.

Source: Gandhi Heritage Portal, Indian Opinion archive
Exact quote: “04 June 1903, Journal Volume Number 1, Issue 1”

Archive material could support study of page layout, advertisements and subjects; reuse permission for scans needs separate checking.

Angle 5. The Fire of Registration Certificates

Hook: Why did people burn documents that the government required them to carry?

Key fact: There was a bonfire of registration certificates during the South African campaign in August 1908.

Source: Sabarmati chronology
Exact quote: “16 August ... 1908 ... bonfire of certificate.”

Angle 6. A Book Written at Sea

Hook: What did Gandhi write while travelling on a ship in November 1909?

Key fact: Gandhi wrote Hind Swaraj aboard the Kildonan Castle.

Source: Gandhi Heritage Portal chronology
Exact quote: “Wrote 'Hind Swarajya' aboard the ship 'Kildonan Castle'.”

Angle 7. Kasturba Goes to Prison

Hook: What happened when Kasturba joined a protest against South African laws?

Key fact: Kasturba Gandhi was imprisoned during the 1913 campaign.

Source: Sabarmati chronology
Exact quote: “Kasturba was awarded 3 months' rigourous imprisonment.”

This angle gives Kasturba a documented role in political action.

Angle 8. The Family That Changed the Ashram

Hook: Why did admitting one family cause donors to stop giving money?

Key fact: Gandhi admitted a Dalit family — Dudhabhai, Daanibehn and their daughter Lakshmi — to Kochrab Ashram. Donations stopped and Ambalal Sarabhai later helped fund the ashram.

Source: Gandhi Heritage Portal, Kochrab Ashram
Exact quotes: “Dudhabhai, Daanibehn, and their daughter Lakshmi”; “All monetary help also ceased.”

This is a documented conflict about caste and living together. The family should be named, not used as anonymous background characters.

Angle 9. The Day the Students Did the Chores

Hook: Why do students and teachers at Santiniketan take over everyday work on a special day?

Key fact: Santiniketan marks Gandhi's association with the school through a day when staff get time off and students and teachers perform chores.

Source: Arjun Sengupta's article, reproduced by mkgandhi.org
Exact quote: “students and teachers carry out the chores”

The article connects the custom with Gandhi meeting Rabindranath Tagore in 1915.

Angle 10. The Farmer Who Brought Gandhi to Champaran

Hook: How did Rajkumar Shukla bring Gandhi's attention to indigo farmers?

Key fact: Rajkumar Shukla accompanied Gandhi on the journey to investigate farmers' conditions.

Source: Sabarmati chronology
Exact quote: “with Rajkumar Shukla to investigate condition of indigo farmers.”

Give the farmer his own role; do not present the visit as Gandhi's idea alone.

Angle 11. The Missing Spinning Wheel

Hook: How did Gangabehn find spinning wheels when Gandhi's ashram was struggling to locate them?

Key fact — LATER MEMORY, told by Gandhi: Gangabehn found unused spinning wheels in Vijapur.

Source: Gandhi’s autobiography, “Found at last!”
Exact quote: “Gangabehn found the spinning wheel in Vijapur in the Baroda State.”

Additional first-person evidence: Gandhi wrote that he had not personally seen a spinning wheel when he returned to India.

Source: Gandhi’s autobiography, “The birth of Khadi”
Exact quote: “I had not actually seen a spinning wheel.”

Gangabehn's work is central to this object-and-person angle.

Angle 12. Seventy-Eight Companions and a Salt Law

Hook: Why did Gandhi set out with 78 companions to challenge a law about salt?

Key fact: The 1930 march began at Sabarmati in protest against the British salt law.

Source: Sabarmati Ashram history
Exact quotes: “with 78 companions”; “in protest of the British Salt Law”

Related primary-source evidence: Gandhi addressed the crowd the evening before the march and told supporters not to become violent.

Source: Speech on the eve of the Dandi March
Exact quote: “Let no one commit a wrong in anger.”

Angle 13. Why Did the Movement Stop?

Hook: What happened at Chauri Chaura that made Gandhi stop the Non-Cooperation Movement?

Key fact: A crowd set a police station on fire in February 1922. Gandhi subsequently stopped the movement.

Source: The Indian Express, “What happened in Chauri Chaura?”
Exact quote: “Gandhi decided to stop the Non-Cooperation Movement”

Research caution: Sources disagree on whether 22 or 23 policemen died. Treat the deaths and prosecutions seriously, not only Gandhi's decision.

Angle 14. The Portrait That Gandhi Signed

Hook: Why did an artist and Gandhi spend time together in London in 1931?

Key fact: The British Library catalogues a chalk portrait by Jacob Kramer bearing both men's signatures.

Source: British Library archival record WD4433
Exact quote: “Signed: ‘Kramer’ and ‘M K Gandhi.’”

The archive identifies this portrait as made in London in November 1931. It is not included in the free-reuse picture list because permission was not verified.

Angle 15. Two Leaders and a Disputed Voting Plan

Hook: Why did Gandhi and B. R. Ambedkar disagree about how Dalits should vote?

Key fact: The Poona Pact followed disagreement about separate electorates and introduced joint electorates with reserved seats.

Source: Constitution of India, Poona Pact archive
Exact quote: “joint electorates with reserved seats.”

The source also notes Ambedkar's dissatisfaction. Both positions should appear in any eventual story.

Angle 16. The Friends Who Disagreed About an Earthquake

Hook: How could Gandhi and Tagore remain connected while disagreeing about what caused a disaster?

Key fact: Gandhi spoke of a connection between the 1934 Bihar earthquake and untouchability; Tagore rejected that explanation.

Source: Gandhi–Tagore article on mkgandhi.org
Exact quote: “Tagore did not agree.”

Gandhi's statement was a belief, not an established cause of earthquakes.

Angle 17. The Bamboo Bridges of Noakhali

Hook: What difficulties did Gandhi face while walking through villages after communal violence?

Key fact: Bhikhu Parekh describes Gandhi crossing narrow bamboo bridges in Noakhali.

Source: Bhikhu Parekh, “Gandhi's Last Painful Days”
Exact quote: “bridges consisting of nothing more than loosely fastened bamboo poles”

This is a later historical account, not a direct quotation from a travel diary.

Angle 18. Independence Day Without a Celebration

Hook: Where was Gandhi when India became independent on 15 August 1947?

Key fact: Gandhi was in Calcutta and observed a 24-hour fast rather than joining the Delhi celebrations.

Source: The Indian Express, 15 August 2026
Exact quote: “Gandhi marked August 15, 1947, with a 24-hour fast.”

Flagship story recommendation

Angle 12 — Seventy-Eight Companions and a Salt Law. The march has a clear starting date, named place, stated law being challenged, recorded speech and surviving period photographs. It allows research into the other marchers and why an everyday substance became part of a political campaign.

The train incident is an alternative flagship but requires a date-dispute note. Angles 8 and 11 would make useful companion pieces about people often omitted from Gandhi-centred accounts.

4. Disputes, legends and doubts

A. When did Gandhi marry Kasturba?

UNSURE: 1882 or 1883 in the chronologies reviewed.

- 1882: Sabarmati Ashram chronology — “1882 ... Marriage with Kasturbai.”
- 1883: mkgandhi.org chronology — “1883 ... Marries Kasturbai.”
- LATER MEMORY from Gandhi: The Story of My Experiments with Truth — “my marriage at the age of thirteen.”

Do not publish an exact marriage year without noting the disagreement.

B. When was Gandhi removed from the South African train?

UNSURE: 31 May or 7 June 1893.

- 31 May 1893: Sabarmati Ashram chronology — “31 May ... Thrown off the first class carriage.”
- 7 June 1893: High Commission of India, Pretoria — “On 7th June 1893, he was thrown off.”

Both sources describe the incident; their dates differ.

C. When did the Kochrab Ashram open?

UNSURE: 20 or 25 May 1915.

- 20 May: Sabarmati chronology — “Established 'Satyagraha Ashram', Kochrab.”
- 25 May: Gandhi Heritage Portal site history — “established on May 25, 1915.”

The dates might describe different stages, but that explanation was not established by these quotations. Prefer 1915 without a day.

D. What year was Indian Opinion founded?

Sources give 1903 and 1904.

- Gandhi Heritage Portal's issue record — “04 June 1903, Journal Volume Number 1, Issue 1.”
- Mani Bhavan biography — “He founded Indian Opinion, his first journal, in 1904.”

An issue dated June 1903 exists; the 1904 statement should not be repeated as the first publication date without explanation.

E. Who first called Gandhi “Mahatma”?

UNSURE; different attributions exist.

- Tagore attribution: Mani Bhavan biography — “Rabindranath Tagore addressed him as ‘Mahatma’.”
- Questioning the first-use attribution: The Indian Express — “there is no documentary evidence of the fact.”
- FAMILY ARCHIVE CLAIM: Mehta family website credits Nautamlal Bhagawanji Mehta and a Jetpur document — “January 21, 1915”; “Nautamlal Bhagawanji Mehta.”

The family website's claim of being first requires independent verification. “Tagore used the name” and “Tagore first used the name” are not the same claim.

F. How many policemen died at Chauri Chaura?

UNSURE: 22 or 23.

- 22: The Indian Express, explained article — “killing 22 policemen.”
- 23: The Indian Express, research article — “Twenty-three policemen perished.”

The first article's photo caption also gives 1923 while its body places the event on 4 February 1922. Check text and source records, not just captions.

G. Did Gandhi say “Hey Ram” when he was shot?

UNSURE: accounts differ.

- “He Ram” account: The Nehru Archive note — “with the words He Ram (O God!) on his lips.”
- Denial attributed to V. Kalyanam: Vinay Lal, UCLA — “Mahatma Gandhi never said ‘He Ram’ when he died.”
- Account attributed to Gopal Godse: Vinay Lal, UCLA — “feeble or faint ‘ah’.”

These are reported accounts, not a verified recording. The UCLA article says Gopal Godse was not present.

H. The school spelling incident

LATER MEMORY — told by Gandhi himself.

“Childhood,” Gandhi's autobiography — “The teacher tried to prompt me with the point of his boot.”

No independent examination record was established. Write Gandhi later remembered….

I. The spinning wheel search

LATER MEMORY — told by Gandhi himself.

“Found at last!”, Gandhi's autobiography — “Gangabehn communicated the joyful news to me.”

The chapter supports Gandhi's recollection, not independent verification of every detail.

J. Gandhi’s broken watch

LATER HISTORICAL ACCOUNT.

Vinay Lal, UCLA — “Gandhi fell to the ground, and the time-piece broke.”

The watch is not a record of spoken words. A watch-focused story would need its provenance established separately.
